

South Run Baptist Church

Summer Intern

Job Description

Since its beginnings 30 years ago, South Run Baptist Church has embraced, encouraged, and equipped ministry students as they explore their calling through its summer internship program. Through a 10-week summer program, one male and one female intern will get to experience an overview of ministry as they serve the vibrant youth and children's programs at a dynamic church committed to reaching its community. Students applying for the program should be a rising senior in college or enrolled in seminary. Located just outside of Washington, D.C., Springfield, Virginia, offers a diverse environment for skills to be cultivated and challenged under the supervision of a loving and caring community of committed followers of Jesus Christ. Interns will be mentored directly by the head pastor and will be a critical part of the church's mission for the summer months.

EXPECTATIONS

- The interns will serve in a full-time, temporary capacity for ten weeks.
- The interns will plan events and programming with the pastor and appropriate ministry teams, all of whom will serve to supervise the internship. Ability to collaborate and communicate is a must.
- The church will provide a weekly $400 salary, housing (in the home of a church family), mileage (when applicable), and some meals. Travel to Springfield, VA is reimbursed.

REQUIREMENTS

- The interns will have a vibrant, personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- The interns will have the ability to work cooperatively with a partner intern and other church staff and leaders.
- The interns' doctrinal understandings will be consistent with those of South Run and support the church's vision, mission, and purpose.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Equip youth and children to serve and minister to others.
- Alert youth and children to God's call in their lives.
- Support parents and current ministry teams.
- Lead youth and children to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Assist with and lead short-term mission trips.
